OBITUARY.

Be still prepared for death and death or life shall thereby be the sweeter.— Shakespeare.

It was on June 30th, 1840, that Mary
A. Losey began life's intricate journey.
She was born in Coneseo, Ontario.
And there she spent the years of her childhood and maidenhood. In 1860 she moved with her parents to Burtchville township, St. Clair county. She was married to Miles Simmons on June 30, 1868. After their marriage they took up their residence on Mr. Simmons' farm, which was about three miles from her father's home, and there they lived and labored together until October, 1903, when they moved to Yale. Their married life was blessed with three children, who are still living.
They are David E. Simmons, who lives at Munising, Sarah E. Baumgardner of Manistee, and Elaine W. Simmons of Owosso.

Mrs. Simmons has always had good health until the last year when she began to fail. Everything possible was done to regain health, but she steadily declined until she passed away last Monday evening, Dec. 10th, 1906. During her illness she displayed christian fortitude, patience and hopefulness.
She retained consciousness to the very last and met death with a peaceful resignation. She joined the Methodist church when she was twelve years of age. Her religion was the mainspring of her character and furnished her with strength and confidence in life.

The funeral was held Thursday morning at 11:00 o'clock from the M.
E. church, Yale, Rev. Lawason officiating. Interment in Elmwood cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Simmons have been highly respected and loved by all who knew them in this community. Mrs.
Simmons will be remembered and missed, and Mr. Simmons will have the sympathy of all in his loneliness.

Died at her home in West Brockway, Wednesday, Dec. 5, Mrs. Mary Burton, of heart disease. Funeral services were conducted in the Cole church at 2 o'clock, Friday, Dec. 7, by Rev. L.
Clark. Interment took place in Elmwood cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Arnold died at her home on Fourth street in Yale, on Saturday, Dec. 8, 1906, of dropsy. She was 56 yrs. of age. Rev. L. Clark conducted the funeral services at the house on Monday, Dec. 10. The body was interred in Elmwood cemetery.

For Coughs and Colds

There is a remedy over sixty years old—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Of course you have heard of it, probably have used it. Once in the family, it stays; the one household remedy for coughs and hard colds on the chest. Ask your doctor about it.

"I have had pneumonia three times, and Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has brought me safely through each time. I have just recovered from my last attack, aged sixty-seven. No wonder, praise it."—E. V. Hooten, Stevens

H. S. LECTURE COURSE.

Fred Emerson Brooks, the California Poet, is engaged to appear at Central Hall, Friday evening, Dec. 21. He has made his appearance in Yale before and greatly pleased his audience.

His poetry is the kind that people read because it reaches the heart. It is full of humor and pathos. We also abound in many of his poems. His productions reach the people because he is in full sympathy with whatever he produces.

Chauncey M. DePew says: "Be patient gentlemen, we are to have more of Brooks later on. Most streams are larger at their mouth than at their source. It is not so with Brooks."

Admission 30cts. Reserved seats 10c extra. On sale at Pollock & Hennes-sy's, Monday evening, Dec. 17, at seven o'clock.
